

CV

Erik Norberg, born 1942, Ph.D. from Stockholm University with a thesis within the project entitled Sweden During the Second World War. Military Archivist and Head of the Military Archives 1982-1991, National Archivist 1991-2003. Various UN assignments at UNIDO and UNESCO, as well as international involvement in the field of archives. President of the Royal Swedish Academy of War Sciences 2002-2006, Secretary of the Royal Swedish Academy of Letters from 2008. Publications in the fields of modern political and military history as well as archival science. Norberg also holds a number of honorary positions, including Lord in Waiting.